

MATRA South Training Programme

Supporting democratic transition in the Arab region

Administration of Justice

Part I: 22 –31 March, 2015
Part II: 18 – 21 October 2015

The Hague, The Netherlands
in the region

Who may apply:

This training on the Administration of Justice is intended for senior civil servants (experts and policy makers), Judges, Public Prosecutors and Officers employed by the national Ministries of Justice/(semi) governmental organisations and charged with the development of the organisation of the Judicial procedure in their respective countries.

Eligible countries:

Application is open for civil servants from: Egypt, Jordan, Libya, Morocco and Tunisia

Fees:

The Netherlands Government will provide full fellowships to selected participants.

Each fellowship will cover the cost of international travel (economy), board and lodging, visa and insurance, tuition fees, lecture materials and excursions for part 1 and part 2 of the training programme.

Language of Instruction: English

With simultaneous interpretation English-French / French-English

Training programme objective:

Through this Matra South training programme, the Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs aims to stimulate and support the democratic transition in the Arab region and to strengthen relations between the Netherlands and the target countries by sharing the necessary knowledge and skills with policy advisors, members of the judiciary and other civil servants working for the administration of justice in order for them to lead and inspire the modernisation of the judicial systems of their home countries .

How to apply:

Further information and application forms available at: www.matra-south.nl

Deadline for submission of application: 18 January 2015