

Advanced Summer Programme on Countering Terrorism: Legal Challenges and Dilemmas

24 - 28 August 2015
The Hague

Programme Update: Confirmed Study Visit to Eurojust

Eurojust is a European Union body established in 2002 with a permanent seat in The Hague. Its main objective is to stimulate and improve the co-ordination of investigations and prosecutions among the competent judicial authorities of the European Union Member States when they deal with serious cross-border and organised crime.

Eurojust consists of 28 National Members, one from each EU Member State, who are seconded in accordance with their respective legal systems.

Countering Terrorism under the Legal Framework of the European Union

During this study visit, Ms. Alinde Verhaag, Head of the Case Analysis Unit, will present Eurojust's recent activities and products in the field of counter-terrorism, and will provide an overview of the more recent developments in the EU on the matter.

From 24 - 28 August 2015, the Asser Institute and the International Centre for Counter-Terrorism - The Hague (ICCT) are organising the fifth Advanced Summer Programme on Countering Terrorism. During this Summer Programme, participants and lecturers will search together for and discuss long-term, effective, international rule of law based strategies and measures in countering today's terrorism.
