CLEER
Centre for the Law of EU External Relations

Dear CLEER Community members,

The Center for the Law of EU External Relations (CLEER) brings you a collection of the latest legal and policy developments in EU external relations from weeks 24-25/2017 (12 June 2017 - 25 June 2017).

With this issue and on the occasion of my departure from CLEER, I'd like to take the opportunity to express my gratitude to the members of the CLEER community who have contributed to the Centre's work through feedback, participation at its events and partnership for joint activities.

Kind regards,

Dr. Tamara Takács
Senior Researcher
Academic Coordinator of CLEER (Centre for the Law of EU External Relations)

The Centre for the Law of EU External Relations (CLEER) is hosted by the T.M.C. Asser Instituut in The Hague, The Netherlands.

Founded in 2008, the Centre for the Law of EU External Relations (CLEER) is the first authoritative research interface between academia and practice in the field of the Union's external relations. CLEER serves as a leading forum for debate on the role of the EU in the world, and engages its extended network of partner institutes throughout Europe in its various activities (research projects conferences, publications etc...).
