

Winter Academy
Doing Business Right

Preliminary Programme

Programme

Day 1: Theoretical foundations of corporate responsibility
9:00 - 12:30	Opening lecture: CSR, substance and form in a globalization context	Jan Eijbouts – Maastricht University
14:00 - 15:30	Criminal accountability for corporate human rights violations abroad: the challenge of jurisdiction	Cedric Ryngaert – Utrecht University
16:00 – 17:30	A legal framework for self-regulation: corporate codes and private law	Anna Beckers – Maastricht University

Day 2: Unilateral actions for corporate responsibility
9:00 - 12:30	EU Law and sustainable supply chains: Cases of forestry, fisheries, biofuels, mining, and due diligence obligations	Wybe Douma – T.M.C. Asser Instituut
14:00 - 15:30	Foreign direct liability and beyond	Liesbeth Enneking – Erasmus University Rotterdam
16:00 - 17:30	Bringing human rights to FIFA: Legal roads to a responsible game	Antoine Duval – T.M.C. Asser Instituut

Day 3: International and bilateral actions for corporate responsibility
9:00 - 12:30	The UN System and the regulation of transnational corporations	Nadia Bernaz – Wageningen University
14:00 - 15:30	Trade and sustainable development: multilateral and regional approaches	Denise Prevost – Maastricht University
16:00 - 17:30	Regulating corporate actors and CSR under BITs and FTAs	Mary Footer – Nottingham University

Day 4: Private regulation of business conduct: Standards for sustainability and CSR
9:00 - 10:30	Regulating global value chains via private standards and certifications. Challenges and opportunities	Enrico Partiti – T.M.C. Asser Instituut
11:00 - 12:30	Standards in Action: The case of the UTZ	Dirk Straathof- UTZ
13:30 – 17:00	Responsible banking in practice: ABN AMRO's path towards respecting human rights	Ruben Zandvliet - ABN Amro

Day 5: Doing Business Right in practice
9:00 – 15:30	Real life cases /simulation exercises	Het Groene Brein
15:30 – 17:00	Advocating business and human rights: Inside the Business & Human Rights Resource Centre	Mauricio Lazala - Deputy Director & Head of Europe Office Business &amp; Human Rights Resource Centre