

Doing Business Right Winter Academy Preliminary programme

28 January 2019 – Doing Business Right beyond the state: Foundations of the business and human rights field

09:30 Welcome and introduction

10:45 Transnational corporations in times of transnational law

12:30 Lunch

13:30 The road to and from the UN Guiding Principles

29 January 2019 – The UN Guiding Principles in (national) action

09:00 Introduction: The UN Guiding Principles within the state

11:00 The Australian/UK model: A modern slavery act

12:30 Lunch

13:30 The Dutch model: Multi-stakeholder sectoral implementation of the UNGPs

15:30 The French model: Binding due diligence

30 January 2019 – The UN Guiding Principles in (transnational) action

09:00 Introduction: The UN Guiding Principles beyond the state

11:00 Translating the UNGPs into transnational rules: The OECD Guidelines on multinational enterprises

12:30 Lunch

13:30 Embedding the UNGPs in transnational corporations: The role of Shift

15:30 Embedding the UNGPs in transnational corporations: The view from the corporation

31 January 2019 – The UN Guiding Principles and access to remedy.

09:00 Introduction: The UN Guiding Principles and access to remedy

11:00 The effectiveness of soft remedies: The OECD National Contact Points

12:30 Lunch

13:30 The hunt for hard remedies: The Kiobel case

15:30 The future of access to remedy: Business and human rights arbitration?

1 February 2019 – Business and Human Rights workshop

09:00 – 17:00