

Human Rights and EU Crisis Management Operations: A Duty to Respect and to Protect?

25 May 2012, The Hague, The Netherlands

The workshop will bring together a group of academics and professional experts from Member States' administrations, the Council, the European Parliament and EU CSDP missions to explore two cross-cutting themes:

- ♦ The duty to ensure respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms in EU crisis management missions;
- ♦ The contribution that such missions make to the Union's policy of promoting human rights at the international level.

The workshop will focus on the protection and promotion of human rights in EU crisis management missions and aims to open up new directions in human rights research and European security law by using EU crisis management missions as a case study to explore the possibilities and limits of human rights protection in peace support operations.

Organisers: Centre for the Law of EU External Relations (CLEER),
Netherlands Defence Academy and T.M.C. Asser Instituut

Venue: T.M.C. Asser Instituut, The Hague, The Netherlands

Fee: Student fee: € 30 (bachelor, master, PhD students)
Regular fee € 50,-

Registrations to be submitted at <http://www.asser.nl/25MayCLEER>

Conference directors: Dr. Ramses Wessel (University of Twente/CLEER),
Dr. Aurel Sari (University of Exeter), Dr. Tamara Takacs (CLEER/T.M.C. Asser Instituut)

For more information and programme please visit www.cleer.eu