

---

SUMMARY OF CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements	V
Table of Contents	XI
List of Abbreviations	XXI

Introduction

Chapter 1: Confronting the Challenges of International Law and Armed Conflict in the 21st Century	3
Noëlle QUÉNIVET and Shilan SHAH-DAVIS

Chapter 2: Myths of ‘Lawfare’ and ‘Legal Encirclement’	31
Christopher P.M. WATERS

Section 1: Accountability

Chapter 3: Issues of the Draft Convention on the Criminal Accountability of United Nations Officials and Experts on Mission	57
Melanie O’BRIEN

Chapter 4: Internationalising the Colombian Armed Conflict through Humanitarian Law and Transitional Justice	76
Rafael A. PRIETO SANJUÁN

Chapter 5: Criminal Accountability or Civil Liability: Which Approach Most Effectively Redresses the Negative Environmental Consequences of Armed Conflict?	95
Tara SMITH

Commentary on: Accountability	115
Bill BOWRING

Section 2: Environment and Natural Resources

Chapter 6: The Impact of Armed Conflict on Sustainable Development: A Holistic Approach	123
Onita DAS

Chapter 7: A Darker Shade of Green: Is it Time to Ecocentrise the Laws of War?	142
Karen HULME

Chapter 8: Targeted Economic Measures to Curb Armed Conflict? The Kimberley Process on the Trade in ‘Conflict Diamonds’	161
Jan Erik WETZEL

Commentary on: Environment and Natural Resources	182
William SCHABAS

Section 3: *Privatisation and Armed Conflict

Chapter 9: Business under Fire: Transnational Corporations and Human Rights in Conflict Zones	189
Olga MARTIN-ORTEGA
Chapter 10: The Influence of Non-Governmental Actors on Compliance with International Law – Compliance with United Nations Security Council Decisions on Angola’s Conflict Diamonds	208
Pini Pavel MIRETSKI
Chapter 11: Private Regulation of Private Military Companies: A Potentially Private Solution to a Commercial Problem?	227
Dewi WILLIAMS
Commentary on: Privatisation and Armed Conflict	241
Ademola ABASS

Section 4: *Children and Armed Conflict

Chapter 12: Children and the International Criminal Court	245
Cynthia CHAMBERLAIN
Chapter 13: Child Terrorists: Why and How Should they Be Protected by International Law	262
Hilly MOODRICK-EVEN KHEN
Commentary on: Children and Armed Conflict	283
William SCHABAS

Section 5: *Implementation of International Humanitarian Law

Chapter 14: Today’s Quest for International Criminal Justice – A Short Overview of the Present State of Criminal Prosecution of International Crimes	289
Sascha-Dominik BACHMANN
Commentary on: Implementation of International Humanitarian Law	309
Bill BOWRING
Commentary on: Implementation of International Humanitarian Law	313
Gerd HANKEL

Section 6: *Reforming the Laws of War

Chapter 15: Bridging the Gaps in the Laws of Armed Conflict? International Criminal Tribunals and the Development of Humanitarian Law	319
Shane DARCY
Chapter 16: Devising New Rules for Regulating International Terrorism Warfare and Engaging Non-State Actors in the Negotiations	338
Konstantinos D. MAGLIVERAS
Commentary on: Reforming the Laws of War	356
Gerd HANKEL

---

Section 7: *Peace, Security and Justice

Chapter 17: ‘In the Interest of Peace and in the Interest of Justice’: Security Council Deferrals as a Constructive Tool for Conflict Resolution	363
Yassin A. M’BOGE
Chapter 18: Procedural Aspects of the Relationship Between the International Criminal Court and Future Truth Commissions. Lessons Learned from the Cases of Sierra Leone and East Timor	380
Madalena PAMPALK
Chapter 19: The Impact of the Legal Right to Self-Determination on the Law of Occupation as a Framework for Post-Conflict State Reconstruction	398
Matthew SAUL
Commentary on: Peace, Security and Justice	417
Ademola ABASS
Commentary on: Peace, Security and Justice	420
Nigel WHITE
Conclusion
Chapter 20: Conclusion	425
Noëlle QUÉNIVET and Shilan SHAH-DAVIS
Index	431