

27 May 2011
Brussels

CLEER
Centre for the Law of EU External Relations

Conference:
The European Union's Shaping of the International Legal Order

For more information and registration* please click here

Contact:
conferencemanager
@asser.nl

* No fee applied

In a series of conferences, CLEER explores the mutual influence between the EU and the international legal order.

The May 2011 CLEER conference will be dedicated to the study of the interaction between the European and the international legal order from an opposing perspective, focusing on exploring the influence of the EU legal order on the development and functioning of international law.

Aiming to include a broad range of areas of interest, the emphasis will come to rest on three profoundly interrelated key issues :

- The influence of the EU in the shaping of the international legal order
- The EU as international standard-setter
- The EU in the shaping of the global economic order

Venue:

University Foundation, Rue d'Egmont 11, Brussels

Organiser:

Centre for the Law of EU External Relations (CLEER) in cooperation with T.M.C. Asser Instituut, The Hague

Conference Directors:

Prof. Dr. Fabian Amtenbrink, Erasmus School of Law, Erasmus University Rotterdam
Dr. Dimitry Kochenov, Faculty of Law, University of Groningen

Sponsored by Jean Monnet Programme

