

Dr. Asier Garrido-Muñoz is Assistant Professor at the University of Salamanca (Spain). His research project at CLEER deals with the 'war paradigm' of the EU counter-terrorism policy. His main areas of interest are International and EU Counter-Terrorism Policy and EU External Relations Law, as well as general topics of Public international law such Human rights Law, State and International Organizations responsibility and State succession to treaties.

He is Ph.D. with Doctor Europaeus mention (University of Salamanca, 2011); LL.M. in International Humanitarian Law (Geneva Academy for International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights, 2009) and MA in European Studies (University of Salamanca, 2007). Between September 2013-May 2014 he was Law Clerk trainee at the International Court of Justice.

He has been invited expert contributor in the development of the academic program of the European Joint Masters in Strategic Border Management managed by FRONTEX, as well as researcher in the legal team that submitted an amicus curiae to the Inter-American Court of Human Rights in the case Eduardo Nicolás Cruz Sánchez et al. vs. Peru (still pending). He has also taught seminars at the Universities of Geneva and Neuchatel (Switzerland).

Relevant publications include:

A. GARRIDO-MUÑOZ, Garantías judiciales y sanciones antiterroristas del Consejo de Seguridad de Naciones Unidas. De la técnica jurídica a los valores (Valencia: Tirant lo Blanch, 2013), 479 p.

A. GARRIDO-MUÑOZ, 'No dédoublement fonctionnel?' Eluding avant-garde human rights law in Spain: Strategies and Judicial Parallelisms' (23) International Law. Revista Colombiana de Derecho Internacional (Julio-Diciembre 2013) 153-202

L. N. GONZÁLEZ ALONSO, A. GARRIDO MUÑOZ (eds.), La Unión Europea y el multilateralismo eficaz. ¿Un compromiso consistente con las Naciones Unidas? (Madrid: lustel, 2012), 396 p.

A. GARRIDO-MUÑOZ, 'La jurisprudencia Post-Kadi en materia de sanciones inteligentes selectivas en la Unión Europea: misma función, distinto guión' (22) Revista General de Derecho Europeo (2010) 22 p.

A. GARRIDO-MUÑOZ, "Article 8. Accords portant dévolution d'obligations ou de droits conventionnels d'un Etat prédecesseur à un Etat successeur", in G. DISTEFANO; G. GAGGIOLI (eds.), La Convention de Vienne sur la succession d'Etats en matière de traités. Commentaire article par article (Bruxelles: Bruylant, publication pending)

