

REGULATIONS

on Working with Intermediaries

Summer Programme on International Sports Law: How to Play Football's Legal Game?

29 June - 3 July
2015
The Hague

Update: FIFA Regulations on Working with Intermediaries

The new FIFA Regulations on Working with Intermediaries entered into force in April 2015. They have as a primary objective the creation of a more simple and transparent system of regulation for football players' representatives. What does it mean in practice? Join our Summer Programme and find out!

The Format: Lecture

The Expert: Daniel Lowen

Daniel is an experienced commercial and regulatory sports lawyer, advising clients across the sports industry on a wide range of issues, from player transfers and commercial opportunities through to disciplinary and contentious matters. Daniel successfully tutored over 120 aspiring football agents to prepare them for the FIFA football agent's exam and has now set up a website dedicated to FIFA's Regulations on Working with Intermediaries: www.footballintermediary.co.uk.

Daniel's recent contentious work includes representing clients before the FIFA DRC and the Court of Arbitration for Sport, as well as other sports governing bodies' dispute resolution and disciplinary bodies.

Register today at: www.asser.nl/SPISL. Please note that the deadline for registration has been extended. You can register up to two weeks before the start of the Summer Programme.

Centre for International & European Law

www.asser.nl/summerprogrammes