

ORGANIZATION

As a result of organisational restructuring at the University of Amsterdam (Penvoerder), the T.M.C. Asser Instituut has been repositioned to fall under the faculty of Law rather than directly under the Senate (CvB) in the University of Amsterdam. The Dean of the Law faculty is now responsible for mediating T.M.C. Asser affairs with the Senate of the University of Amsterdam. The Dean of the Law Faculty in Amsterdam (Prof. Dr. E. du Perron) is the University of Amsterdam's mandated Governor of the T.M.C. Asser Instituut.

Governance

The T.M.C. Asser Instituut is governed by its Governing Board and Executive Board.

Governing Board

The Governing Board is responsible for the governance and overall management of the T.M.C. Asser Instituut such that the Institute's strategy and policies embody its mission and objectives. It comprises an Independent Chairman and Representatives of the University of Amsterdam, the VU University of Amsterdam, the University of Groningen, the Radboud University Nijmegen, Leiden University, Maastricht University, the Erasmus University Rotterdam, Tilburg University and Utrecht University.

Executive Board

The Executive Board directs and controls the affairs of the Institute and comprise an Independent Chair, and two Board members representing the constituent universities.

During 2011, the Directorate of the T.M.C. Asser Instituut convened on a number of occasions with its Executive Board. The Institute's leadership, its positioning in relation to the Hague Institute of Global Justice, its relationship with the Dutch Universities law faculties as well as the financial position of the Institute and its development within the framework of the Covenant with its governing body, the University of Amsterdam, were relevant agenda items.

Directorate

The Directorate, responsible for the daily steering of the institute comprises a General Director and an Executive Director.

Management Team

The Management team comprise the Directorate and the Heads of the following departments: Research, Human Resources, Operations, Education & Events, Finance & Control and The T.M.C. Asser Press.

Management encourages a culture where staff development is a continuous process and is a key accountability of all managers. Staff members are encouraged to develop their knowledge and skills and to work effectively both as individuals and as team members.
