

Summer School on The Law and Practice of International Dispute Settlement

10 - 14 July 2017
The Hague

5 student scholarships available, sponsored by AKD!

The AKD law firm has generously offered to fund 5 partial scholarships:

Eligible Candidates:

The partial scholarships are exclusively available to master students and PhD candidates. Eligible candidates are those focusing on issues of international law including dispute resolution, courts and tribunals, settlement of investment disputes, the peaceful settlement of disputes, and the judicialization of international law. Students focusing on private international law practices with public interest consequences are also eligible, as are students in related fields.

Please note that nationals from non-OECD countries are particularly encouraged to apply for this scholarship.

The scholarship covers:

- €700,- tuition fee;
- Lunch, 5 days;
- Course materials;
- Opening dinner;
- Closing reception.

The scholarships do not cover costs for travel, accommodation and any other expenses.

Application documents to be submitted:

- A completed online partial scholarship application form available at: www.asser.nl/SPIDS2017Scholarship;
- A Curriculum Vitae;
- A letter of motivation (400 words), including arguments for scholarship eligibility;
- Two names of references that can be contacted, along with email and telephone contact information.

Selection Method:

Scholarship applications will be reviewed by a panel of professionals from the University of Amsterdam and the Asser Institute. Successful candidates will be notified within 4 weeks after receiving automatic confirmation their application was processed.

Application deadline:

The scholarships are available immediately, and will be awarded on a rolling basis. For that reason, you are advised to apply as soon as possible. Once all scholarships have been assigned, the procedure will be closed and an announcement will be made.

Contact and more information:

Should you not receive an automatic confirmation your application was successfully processed within 2 work days, or should you have any further questions regarding scholarships, please contact educationtraining@asser.nl.
