Administration of Justice

Shiraka: A professional development course

Netherlands Enterprise Agency

The Netherlands invites senior civil servants from the MENA region to apply for a professional development course on Administration of Justice. Eligible countries for this course: Algeria, Bahrain, Egypt, Iraq, Iran, Yemen, Jordan, Kuwait, Libya, Lebanon, Morocco, Mauritania, Oman, Palestinian Territories, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Tunisia, United Arab Emirates.

The objective of the course is for civil servants working in the field of administration of justice to share their knowledge and skills enabling them to lead and inspire the modernisation of judiciary and prosecution services in their home countries. The course also aims to strengthen participants' ties with the Netherlands and the Dutch government; especially between Dutch civil servants and their counterparts in the target countries.

Goals of the Administration of Justice professional development course

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands is organising the professional development course with the following aims:

- To equip the participants with the necessary knowledge and practical skills and expose them to organisational and policy aspects that will enable them to develop and strengthen their home systems;
- To create understanding among the participating civil servants and members of the judiciary and prosecution services about each others' roles and capabilities;
- To better understand in the target countries the impact of human rights on the administration of justice;
- To foster networks between the participants and the speakers and to stimulate and strengthen closer judicial cooperation.

Additionally, the course provides participants with the opportunity to develop a valuable network with other civil servants in the region and in the Netherlands.

Course outline and content

- Safeguards of judicial independence
- Rule of law principles as foundations of administration of justice
- Integrity and modernisation of the judiciary
- Integrity of adjudication and dealing with the media in the courts
- Practical skills workshop
- Internationalisation of administration of Justice
- Mediation practices and small claims procedures

Dates, location and language

The professional development course will take 2 weeks in total.

Part I: 2-11 September 2018 Part II: Mid-December 2018
The Hague In one of the participating countries
The Netherlands

The courses will be in English, with interpretation into Arabic. Participants are obliged to attend both parts in full. After completing the course, participants will receive a certificate.

Costs and fees

The Dutch government will take care of all relevant costs for participants from countries on the OECD-DAC list. This includes international travel, board and lodging, visa and insurance, and tuition fees for the course.

Participants from countries that are not on the OECD-DAC list will pay for their own international travel costs; flight tickets and visa. Board and lodging, insurance and tuition fees for the course will be covered by the Dutch government.

All applicants are responsible for the organisation and costs of travelling to the airport in their own country. In case of no-shows or cancellations within four weeks before the start of the first part of the training, the organisation has the right to claim all costs incurred from the participants' employer.

Application

The applications should be made online before 1 June 2018. To apply you have to create an account first which will enable you to fill out the online application form. Go to the website:
