

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

UNDERSTANDING AI

Monday 11 February 2019

9:30 - 10:30	Opening and introductions
11:00 - 12:00	Definition of AI, current trends, prospective trajectories
13:00 - 14:00	Individuality and humanity in the age of AI
14:30 - 15:30	Explainability and transparency of decision-making algorithms
16:00 - 17:00	Hands-on workshop with machine-learning algorithms

AI FOR GOOD

Tuesday 12 February 2019

9:30 - 10:30	Ethics of AI and value-sensitive design
11:00 - 12:00	AI and human rights (1)
13:00 - 14:00	AI and human rights (2)
14:30 - 15:30	Securing evidence of war crimes with AI and blockchain
16:00 - 17:00	Hackathon-rewind: Using AI to predict land-grabbing

AI AND ARMED CONFLICT

Wednesday 13 February 2019

9:30 - 10:30	Autonomous weapons systems and human dignity
11:00 - 12:00	AI and international humanitarian law (1)
13:00 - 14:00	AI and international humanitarian law (2)
14:30 - 17:00	Panel discussion: Human control over autonomous military technologies Event open to external participants upon invitation

AI AND RESPONSIBILITY

Thursday 14 February 2019

9:30 - 10:30	The challenge of accountable AI
11:00 - 12:00	AI and individual criminal responsibility
13:00 - 14:00	AI and State responsibility
14:30 - 15:30	AI and collective moral agency
16:00 - 17:00	Group debate: Towards a framework of shared responsibility for and of AI

AI GOVERNANCE

Friday 15 February 2019

9:30 - 10:30	Regulation of AI
11:00 - 12:00	Geopolitics of AI
13:00 - 14:00	Closing the gap: the European Union and AI governance
14:30 - 15:30	The role of international norms and institutions
16:00 - 17:00	Closing ceremony and reception