

ACIL-Asser Summer Programme

International Lawyering in a Public Interest

Preliminary Programme, 8-12 July 2019

Day 1

Monday 8 July

10:30 - 12:30	Introduction to programme Geoff Gordon, Asser Institute
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 15:15	Why and how to do strategic litigation Jelle Klaas, The Public Interest Litigation Project
15:30 - 17:30	Globalizing public interest law: exploring opportunity structures Lamin Khadar, Dentos

Day 2

Tuesday 9 July

10:30 - 12:30	Shrinking Democratic Space: Dealing with Political Challenges to Human Rights Defenders Nikhil Narayan, Independent / Senior Peace Fellow at Public International Law & Policy Group
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 15:15	Building and working with networks: Collaboration for public interest lawyering? Marieanne McKeown, PILnet & Annemarie van den Heuvel, Pro Bono Connect
15:30 - 17:30	Representing blacklisted persons before the UN Ombudsperson Gavin Sullivan, Kent University

Day 3

Wednesday 10 July

10:30 - 12:30	Impact and limitations of strategic human rights litigation Helen Duffy, Leiden University
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 15:15	Title TBC Greenpeace
15:30 - 17:30	Title TBC Nathalie Dijkman, SEMA – Amsterdam Law Hub

Day 4

Thursday 11 July

10:30 - 12:30	International justice, lobbying and advocacy Matt Cannock, Amnesty International
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 15:15	Title TBC Robert Houston, The Global Pro Bono Bar Association
15:30 - 17:30	The Global Legal Action Network: Reflections on Critical Transnational Lawyering' Gearóid Ó Cuinn & Ioannis Kalpouzos, The Global Legal Action Network

Day 5

Friday 12 July

10:30 - 12:30	Green trade and fair trade in and with the EU: Process-based measures within the EU legal order Laurens Ankersmit, University of Amsterdam
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 15:15	The limits and ends of public interest advocacy: A critical reflection Geoff Gordon, Asser Institute
15:30 - 17:30	TBC