

Expert Roundtable

Trading Emerging Technologies:
Security and Human Rights Perspectives

Tuesday 15 September 2020, 13.00-17.00

Online Session

Hosted by Utrecht University & Asser Institute

PROGRAMME

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 13.00-13.10 | Machiko Kanetake (Utrecht University) and Berenice Boutin (Asser Institute) -
Opening |
| 13.10-14.00 | Brigitte Dekker and Maaïke Okano-Heijmans (Clingendael)

US-China technology conflict and the need for new approaches to export control of emerging technologies

Commentator: Valentin Weber (University of Oxford) |
| 14.00-14.50 | Merel Koning (Amnesty International)

Cyber-surveillance technology and human rights protection in export regulation in the EU

Commentator: Ben Wagner (Vienna University of Economics and Business) |
| 14.50-15.20 | Break |
| 15.20-16.10 | Stéphane Chardon (European Commission)

Export control, emerging technologies, security and human rights: squaring the circle

Commentator: Paul Diegel (European Parliament) |
| 16.10-16.55 | Tim van Essen and Casper Volger (Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Netherlands)

The Dutch Approaches to the Export Control of Emerging Technologies

Commentator: Machiko Kanetake |
| 16.55-17.00 | Concluding remarks by: Berenice Boutin |