

Corporate crimes and international criminal law - Moving beyond the Nuremberg Paradigm

The Hague, 18 May 2022

Programme

- 09:15 - 09:30 Welcome
Prof. Dr Janne Nijman (Asser Institute)
- 09:30 - 09:45 Opening testimonies
M. X. (plaintiff in the Lafarge Syria case, tbc) and Rasheed Alfaqih (Mwatana for Human Rights - Executive Director)
- 09:45 - 10:45 From Nuremberg to The Hague: 75 Years of corporate (un)accountability for international crimes
A conversation between Dr Annika van Baar and Prof. Dr Kai Ambos (Universität Göttingen), with audience participation.
Moderator: Dr Miriam Saage-Maaß (ECCHR - Legal Director)
- 10:45 - 11:00 Coffee Break
- 11:00 - 12:00 Holding corporations accountable under ICL: Missed opportunities, future possibilities?
A conversation between Evelyne Owiye Asaala (University of Nairobi) and Dr Grietje Baars (City, University of London), with audience participation.
Moderator: Prof. Dr Chantal Meloni (University of Milan/ECCHR - Senior Legal Advisor)
- 12:00 - 13:00 Lunch Break
- 13:00 - 15:00 Corporate accountability in action: Strategic litigation before national courts and the ICC
Moderator: Dr Antoine Duval (Asser Institute)
Panel:
 - Cannelle Lavite (ECCHR - Legal Advisor)
 - Dr Miriam Saage-Maaß (ECCHR - Legal Director)
 - Sandra Cossart (Sherpa)
 - Prof. Dr Sabine Michalowski (University of Essex)
 - Matevž Pezdirc (Eurojust)

15:00 – 15:30 Coffee/Tea Break

15:30 - 17:30 Achieving criminal accountability for corporate crimes under International Criminal Law: Concrete challenges and insights on cooperation

Moderator: Montse Ferrer (Amnesty International Corporate Crimes Project)

Panel:

- Prof. Göran Sluiter (University of Amsterdam, Prakken d'Oliveira and Clooney Foundation for Justice)
- Dr Elinor Fry (International Crimes Team, National Public Prosecutors' Office of The Netherlands)
- Reinhold Gallmetzer (Center for Climate Crime Analysis)
- Seema Joshi (Global Witness)

17:30 Closing remarks and reception