

Joint T.M.C. Asser Institute – Amsterdam Centre for European Studies (ACES)
Conference: The EU as a Regional International Organisation (RIO)
1 December 2023

Conference conveners: Teresa Cabrita (Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory), Narin Idriz (T.M.C. Asser Institute), Eva Kassoti (T.M.C. Asser Institute)

Programme

09.15 Introduction: The EU as a Regional International Organisation

Chair: Dr Eva Kassoti (T.M.C. Asser Institute)

09.30 – 10.45 Keynote: Jan Klabbers (University of Helsinki) ‘The Phenomenology of the RIO’

10.45-11.00 Coffee Break

11.00-12.30 Panel 1: The EU as a RIO – Conceptual Issues

Chair: Prof. Ramses Wessel (University of Groningen)

- Andrew Telford and Anne van Wageningen (University of Amsterdam) - Solving European problems with regional solutions? Conceptualizing ‘the region’ in EU higher education and climate change policies
- Maruša T. Veber (University of Ljubljana) - The Concept of Regionality in the Context of the Adoption of Sanctions by Regional International Organizations
- Sebastian Krapohl (University of Amsterdam) - The EU is not a Role Model! Why other regional organizations around the world do not follow the path of European integration

12.30-13.30 Lunch break

13.30-15.30 Panel 2: The EU as a RIO: A Comparative Perspective

Chair: Dr Teresa Cabrita (Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory)

- Tamás Molnár (EU Agency for Fundamental Rights, Corvinus University of Budapest) - The EU shaping standard-setting within the Council of Europe: a (sub-)regional international organisation and the multiple dimensions of developing regional international law
- Stefanos Kardaras (European Commission – DG Energy) - The European Atomic Energy Community as a Regional International Organisation: The example of the relation to the NPT (Non-Proliferation Treaty) – to be confirmed
- Eleonora Frasca (UCLouvain) – The EU's External Action on Migration: How the EU (does not) Promote Free Movement and Facilitate Mobility in Other World Regions
- Joris Larik (Leiden University) – RIOs and the Geopolitical Turn: Is Only the EU Awakening?

15.30-15.45 Coffee Break

15.45-17.15 Panel 3: The EU as a RIO: Case-Studies

Chair: Dr Narin Idriz (T.MC. Asser Institute)

- Katrina Perhudoff (University of Amsterdam) - What is the EU's practice of international cooperation in the field of health and pharmaceuticals, and how does it align with this principle under international law?
- Daniel Thomas (Leiden University) - Contestations of European identity, soft law and the practice of EU enlargement
- Petr Stejskal (Palacky University Olomouc) - EU anti-coercion mechanism - A tool for development or fragmentation of international law?

17.15 Reception