Dear Members,

This year's PhD Training for 3rd and 4th-Year Students, organised by the University of Groningen, will take place on Friday, 11 April 2025. The training will tackle critical topics to help students transition smoothly from their PhD journey to the next chapter of their impressive careers.

Highlights include:

- Careers in Human Rights
- Publishing Your Human Rights Research
- Funding Opportunities
- Mental Resilience and Well-Being

- Networking Opportunities

Previous attendance of the 1st and 2nd year PhD Training is not a prerequisite for attending this training. The training will be conducted only in person and is accessible to PhD members of the Netherlands Network for Human Rights Research (NNHRR). NNHRR offers up to 150 euros reimbursement for transport and accommodation for each attendee with NNHRR membership. Are you not currently a member of the NNHRR? Or, are you a PhD student from a non-member institution and would like to join our PhD Trainings and PhD Forum? Then please refer to this page. PhD candidates who are not members of NNHRR may be able to attend for a fee, subject to availability. For information, you may contact NNHRR@asser.nl.

Please spread the word among your (PhD) colleagues and register by 1 April.
