

PROGRAMME

NNHRR Doctoral Forum 2025

Date: 30 January 2026

Venue: Maastricht University, Bouillonstraat 1-3 (rooms announced below)

TIME	PROGRAMME
09:30 – 10:30	Registration and Coffee/Tea (Statenzaal)
10:30 – 10:45	Welcome and Opening Remarks (Statenzaal) Dr. Stephanie Triefus (NNHRR Academic Coordinator) (online) Prof. Dr. Andrea Broderick (Forum Convenor and NNHRR Steering Committee Member)
10:45 – 12:15	Parallel Panels (Morning Session) Panel 1: Technology, Regulation, and Human Rights (Room B0.118) Theme: How technological change and regulatory frameworks influence human rights protection and legal accountability Moderator: Nozizwe Dube · Discussant: Dr. Valentina Golunova <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Jessica Commins – AI decision aids in shared decision-making: A patients' rights perspective (Erasmus University Rotterdam)2. Mohamed Gomaa – Digital transformation and access to justice (Hamburg University)3. Tessa Jager – Does the law hold liquor? How a strong normative framing of alcohol can catalyse better health protection in domestic alcohol legislation (University of Groningen)

Panel 2: European Human Rights Law (Room B0.115)

Theme: Domestic and transnational approaches to interpreting and implementing human rights within European legal systems

Moderator: Naz Yılancioğlu · Discussant: Dr. Skander Galand

1. Saskia von Landenberg – Domestic application of the European Social Charter (Maastricht University)
2. Vivian Salles Vieira Pinto – Knowing your parents: Should it be a matter of consent? (Maastricht University)
3. Paul Hoynck van Papendrecht – Between breach and damage: The (Dutch) civil law perspective on just satisfaction for violations of the reasonable time requirement (Erasmus University Rotterdam)
4. Yelyzaveta Markova – Anonymity and authentication on social media platforms (Radboud University)

12:15 –
13:15

Lunch Break (Room B0.006)

13:15 –
14:45

Parallel Panels (Afternoon Session)

Panel 3: International Law, Accountability, Conflict and Human Rights Protection (Room B0.118)

Theme: How international accountability mechanisms and human rights frameworks respond to violations arising in armed conflict, displacement, and crisis situations

Moderator: Dr. Laura Visser · Discussant: Dr. Wim Muller

1. Gaia Zoboli – Ending Jus Cogens violations: Are sanctions an option? (Maastricht University)
 2. James Patrick Sexton – Magnitsky-style sanctions and international criminal justice (University of Amsterdam)
 3. Anna M. Puigderrajols Triadó – Domicide: Destruction of homes during armed conflict (Leiden University)
-

	Panel 4: Interdisciplinary and Contextual Approaches to Human Rights Practice (Room B0.115) Theme: How policy analysis, historical narrative, and evolving legal actors shape the interpretation and implementation of human rights Moderator: Dr. Andre Nunes Chaib · Discussant: Dr. Roland Moerland <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Lucy J. Gaynor – ‘The past is never dead’: An anatomy of historical narratives at the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (University of Amsterdam) 2. Oğuzhan Öztürk – Refugees as actors of international law (Leiden University) 3. Monique van Cauwenberghe – Conceptualising psychosocial wellbeing within the right to mental health: A focus on internally displaced persons within the context of climate disasters (University of Groningen)
14:45 – 15:15	Break (Law Café)
15:15 – 16:15	Closing Session: “Experienced reflections on building an academic career in human rights law” (Statenzaal) Interview and discussion with Prof. Dr. Fons Coomans (Maastricht University) & Dr. Kushtrim Istrefi (Utrecht University) (moderated by Dr. Roland Moerland)
16:15 – 16:25	Closing Remarks (Prof. Dr. Andrea Broderick) (Statenzaal)
16:30 – 17:30	Drinks (Law Café)
18:00 – 20:00	Dinner (Marres Kitchen, Capucijnenstraat 98, 6211 RT Maastricht)