

Table of Contents

Preface

Prof. dr. Wouter van Rossum, Dean of the Faculty of Military Sciences

1. Introducing Cyber Warfare
Frans Osinga
2. Cyber Security and Policy Responses
Han Bouwmeester, Hans Folmer & Paul Ducheine
3. Of Snoops and Pirates: Competing Discourses of Cyber Security
Maarten Rothman and Theo Brinkel
4. Cyber War Will Not Take Place
Thomas Rid
5. Towards a Legal Framework for Military Cyber Operations
Paul Ducheine, Joop Voetelink, Jan Stinissen and Terry Gill
6. Digital Duels in the Global Public Sphere. Social Media in Civil Society and Military Operations
Jan van der Meulen and René Moelker
7. An Economic Analysis of Cyber Attacks
Robert Beeres and Myriame Bollen
8. Analysing and Modelling the Interconnected Cyberspace
Herman Monsuur, R.E. Kooij and Piet van Mieghem
9. Headquarters Anonymous
Giliam de Valk, Roy Lindelauf and Nico Timmermans
10. Addressing Cyber Threats: Will Strategic Network Management Do the Job?
Paul C. van Fenema and Joseph Soeters
11. The Human Factor in Cyber Defence: Individual and Organisational Resilience
Elly Broos, Ad Vogelaar and Paul C. van Fenema
12. Coping with Disruptive Technology. Military Innovation in the Interwar Years
Henk de Jong and Floribert Baudet

13. Beyond Cyber-Doom: Cyber Attack Scenarios and the Evidence of History
Sean Lamson

Contributors