

Short Studies in Private International Law

Short Studies in Private International Law are short-book publications devoted to topics in private international law, in particular international and European civil procedure. The volumes can be a result of papers presented at conferences but can also consist of short monographs or edited volumes on private international law, aimed to inform academics and practitioners timely of recent developments. The hardcover books are compact volumes of 100–150 pages and are characterized by fast, global electronic dissemination, standard publishing contracts, standardized manuscript preparation and formatting guidelines, and expedited production schedules.

The contributions to this book are based on the papers presented during the conference “International Civil Procedure and Brussels Ibis” held at the T.M.C. Asser Institute on 19 March 2015, celebrating the Institute’s 50th anniversary. The contribution written by V. Lazić and S. Stuij replaces the paper presented by P. Beaumont, whose views are not reflected in that contribution.
