Series Information

Books in the ASSER International Sports Law Series comprehensively chart and analyse legal and policy developments in the emerging field of European and international sports law. Within scholarly publishing, the series is the most cited in its area and uniquely features contributions from the leading sports law scholars. It is a valuable resource for practitioners, academics, sports officials, and anyone interested in or impacted by sports and law.

This Series is developed, edited and published by the ASSER International Sports Law Centre in The Hague. The Centre's mission is to provide a centre of excellence, in particular by providing high-quality research, services and products to the sporting world at large (sports ministries, international—intergovernmental—organisations and federations, the professional sports industry, etc.) on both a national and an international basis. As a pioneer in the field of European and international sports law, the Centre has established a worldwide network of academics and practitioners and cooperation agreements with various sports law institutes and centres in Europe and beyond.

Apart from the Series, the Centre edits and publishes The International Sports Law Journal.
