
CONTENTS

Foreword	V
Abbreviations	XIII
Introduction	1

PART I SUBSTANTIVE LAW

Chapter 1
The Purpose of the Ban on Doping (Arguments against the Use of Doping)	9
1. Introduction	9
2. The use of doping endangers the athlete's health	11
3. The use of doping leads to an unfair advantage	14
3.1. Doping enhances athletic performance	15
3.2. Athletes using doping gain an unfair advantage	16
4. The use of doping is contrary to fairness	17
5. The use of doping is contrary to ethics	19
6. The use of doping is contrary to the rules of sport	21
7. The rationale of the World Anti-Doping Code	22
8. Conclusion	22
Chapter 2
Definition of Doping and the Description of the Doping Offence	25
1. Introduction	25
2. The evolution of the description of the offence of the use of doping	29
2.1. Main categories of the use of doping	30
2.1.1. Doping is the use of substances and methods for a specific purpose	30
2.1.2. Doping is the use of certain, specified substances and methods	34
2.1.3. Doping is the use of certain, specified substances and methods for a specific purpose	40
2.1.4. Doping is the presence of a prohibited substance in the body of an athlete (strict liability)	43
2.1.5. The description of the offence of the use of doping in the Olympic Movement Anti-Doping Code	48
2.1.6. The description of the offence of the use of doping in the World Anti-Doping Code	56

2.2.	The description of the ancillary doping infractions	61
2.2.1.	The failure to report to doping control and the refusal to submit to doping control	61
2.2.2.	No change of address	64
2.2.3.	The admission to having used a prohibited substance or method	72
2.2.4.	Masking agents and methods	74
2.2.5.	Possession of a prohibited substance	77
2.2.6.	Criminal conviction	78
2.2.7.	Elastic provisions	78
3.	Offences related to the use of doping	80
3.1.	Third-party assistance in the use of doping	80
3.2.	The doping of horses	86
3.3.	The illegal trade in prohibited doping substances	89
4.	Doping substances and methods	93
4.1.	Doping substances	93
4.1.1.	Doping substances which are prohibited unconditionally (“hard doping”)	93
4.1.2.	Doping substances which are prohibited conditionally (“soft doping”)	93
4.2.	Doping methods	98
5.	Conclusion	99

Chapter 3

The Punishability of the Act of Doping	105
1.	Introduction	105
2.	Defects in the “chain of custody”	106
2.1.	Mistakes made during the doping control	108
2.2.	Mistakes made during the transport of the sample	110
2.3.	Mistakes made during the analysis of the sample	111
3.	Absence of formal illegality	114
3.1.	Use of conditionally prohibited substances	115
3.2.	Use of substances not appearing on the doping list	120
3.3.	Endogenous production of prohibited substances and the “grey area”	127
4.	Conclusion	127

Chapter 4

The Liability of the Perpetrator for the Act of Doping	131
1.	Introduction	131
2.	The metamorphosis of the material rule	134
3.	The prima facie liability rule	137
4.	Interpretation by the CAS of the prima facie rule	143
4.1.	Between the old and the revised material rule	143
4.2.	The reasons for the CAS’s preference for the strict liability rule	148

4.3.	Punishment without guilt? Strict or prima facie liability?	151
4.4.	Absence of guilt	167
4.4.1.	Mistake of law	168
4.4.2.	Mistake of fact	171
4.4.3.	Endogenous production of prohibited substances and the “grey area”	180
4.5.	Exceptional circumstances according to the WADC	199
4.6.	Manipulation by the athlete	205
4.7.	Manipulation by third parties	208
5.	Liability in case of ancillary doping infractions	212
5.1.	Refusing or failing to undergo doping control	212
5.2.	Confession	214
6.	Guilt in case of “non-use” offences	215
7.	Metaphor or equivalent? Comments on the strict liability system	220
8.	Conclusion	225
Chapter 5
	System of Sanctions	229
1.	Introduction	229
2.	Sanctions for individual athletes in cases of “hard doping”	232
2.1.	The various types of sanctions	233
2.1.1.	First offence: 2 years’ suspension; second offence: life-long ban	233
2.1.2.	First offence: one-year suspension; second offence: life-long ban	240
2.1.3.	First offence: two-year suspension; second offence: minimum suspension of 3 years	241
2.1.4.	First offence: maximum suspension of 2 years; second offence: life-long ban	241
2.1.5.	First offence: maximum suspension of 2 years; second offence: suspension of 4 years	244
2.1.6.	First offence: minimum suspension of 2 years; second offence: life-long ban	244
2.1.7.	First offence: minimum suspension of 4 years; second offence: life-long ban	246
2.1.8.1.	First offence: flexible ban; second offence: flexible ban; third offence: life-long ban	247
2.1.8.2.	First offence: flexible ban; second offence: flexible ban; third offence: flexible ban	249
2.1.9.	First offence: maximum life-time ban	251
2.1.10.	No malice: suspension of 1 to 3 months and a fine; malice: suspension of 3 months to 2 years and a fine	252
2.1.11.	First offence: ban on participation in one or several competitions, fine of up to US$ 100,000 and suspension from all competition for at least two years; second offence: ban on participation in any competition, fine of up to US$ 1,000,000 and suspension from all competitions for 4 years to life	252

2.2.	Table of “hard”-doping sactions	253
2.3.	Sanctions according to WADC	254
3.	Sanctions for individual athletes in cases of “soft doping”	256
3.1.	The various types of sanctions	256
3.1.1.	First offence: advice; second offence: suspension of 3 months; third offence: suspension of 1 year	256
3.1.2.	First offence: public warning; second offence: minimum suspension of 2 years; third offence: life-long ban	257
3.1.3.	First offence: suspension of 3 months; second offence: suspension of 1 year; third offence: life-long ban	257
3.1.4.	First offence: maximum suspension of 3 months; second offence: maximum suspension of 2 years; third offence: possible life-long ban	258
3.1.5.	First offence: maximum suspension of 90 days; second offence: suspension of 2 years	259
3.1.6.	First offence: maximum suspension of 3 months and a fine; second offence: suspension of 6 months to 1 year and a fine; third offence: life-long ban and a fine	259
3.1.7.	First offence: maximum suspension of 3 months; second offence: suspension of 2 years; third offence: minimum suspension of 3 years	260
3.1.8.	First offence: maximum suspension of 3 months; second offence: suspension of 2 years (possibly longer); third offence: ban of 5 years to life	261
3.1.9.	First offence: maximum suspension of 3 months; second offence: suspension of 2 years; third offence: life-long ban	262
3.1.10.	First offence: suspension of 3 months; second offence: suspension of 2 years; third offence: life-long ban	267
3.1.11.	First offence: suspension of 6 months; second offence: suspension of 2 years; third offence: life-long ban	268
3.1.12.	First offence: maximum suspension of 3 months; second offence: minimum suspension of 3 years; third offence: life-long ban	269
3.1.13.	First offence: suspension of 3 months; second offence: suspension of 4 years; third offence: life-long ban	269
3.1.14.	First offence: possible suspension of 2 years; second offence: possible disqualification for life	270
3.1.15.	Malice: suspension of 3 months to 2 years and a fine; no malice: suspension of 1 month to 3 months and a fine	270
3.1.16.	Discretionary determination of the sanction	271
3.1.17.	First offence: suspension of 2 years; second offence: suspension of 4 years	272
3.1.18.	First offence: suspension of 2 years; second offence: life-long ban	272
3.1.19.	Doping: warning, ban, fine and suspension of 1 to 3 months; intentional doping: ban, fine and suspension of 2 to 8 years	273

3.2.	Table of “soft-doping” sanctions	273
3.3.	Sanctions according to the WADC	274
4.	Sanctions for some ancillary doping infractions	275
5.	Team sanctions	276
5.1.	Primary team sanctions	276
5.2.	Secondary team sanctions	276
5.2.1.	The match is declared lost	277
5.2.2.	Disqualification of the entire team	278
5.2.3.	Other sport sanctions for the entire team	282
5.2.4.	No team sanctions	282
5.3.	Sanctions according to the WADC	282
6.	Sanctions at the national level	283
6.1.	Extreme variations	284
6.1.1.	First offence	284
6.1.2.	Second offence	285
6.1.3.	Third offence	285
6.2.	“Exotic” variations	286
6.2.1.	Suspension from membership	286
6.2.2.	Ban from representation	287
6.2.3.	Termination of funding	287
6.2.4.	Suspension in specific areas only	288
6.2.5.	Sanctions according to category	288
6.3.	Discretionary powers and flexible sanctions	288
6.3.1.	Full discretionary powers	288
6.3.2.	Table of flexible sanctions	290
7.	Proportionality of sanctions and restraint of trade	292
7.1.	Proportionality of sanctions	292
7.2.	Restraint of trade	296
7.3.	The approach taken in the WADC – exceptional circumstances	299
8.	Reduction of sanction for cooperation in the investigation	299
9.	Sport sanctions	299
9.1.	Disqualification	300
9.2.	Return of prizes, medals, etc.	303
9.3.	Sport sanctions according to the WADC	303
10.	Conclusion	304
Interim Chapter		309

PART II PROCEDURAL LAW

Chapter 6
The Nature of the Doping Trial and the Due Process		317
1.	Introduction	317

2.	The freedom of association	317
3.	The position of disciplinary doping law within the legal framework	318
4.	Requirements for disciplinary doping law – fair trial	325
5.	Fair trial rights in sports law	331
5.1.	The right to appear in person / the right to be heard (cf. Art. 6(1) ECHR)	331
5.1.1.	The right to be heard	332
5.1.2.	The right to submit evidence	337
5.1.3.	The right to conduct the doping trial in writing	339
5.2.	Open court (cf. Art. 6(1) ECHR)	340
5.3.	Impartiality of the tribunal (cf. Art. 6(1) ECHR)	343
5.4.	The in dubio pro reo principle (cf. Art. 6(2) ECHR)	344
5.5.	The right to be informed of the charges (cf. Art. 6(3)(a) ECHR)	349
5.6.	The right to inspection of the file (cf. Art. 6(3)(b) ECHR)	351
5.7.	The right to representation (cf. Art. 6(3)(c) ECHR)	352
5.8.	The right to call witnesses and/or experts (cf. Art. 6(3)(d) ECHR)	354
5.9.	The right to be assisted by an interpreter (cf. Art. 6(3)(e) ECHR)	356
5.10.	The granting of fair trial rights in practice	356
5.11.	The doctrine of estoppel	359
5.12.	The approach chosen in the WADC	360
6.	Remedies at law	362
6.1.	Opposing a judgment	362
6.2.	Right of appeal	363
6.3.	Right of cassation	366
6.4.	Right of appeal to the court of arbitration for sport (CAS)	366
7.	Fundamental criminal law rights in practice	370
7.1.	The nulla poena sine lege scripta principle (the principle of legality)	370
7.2.	The lex certa principle (the principle of legal certainty)	373
7.3.	The ne bis in idem principle	375
7.4.	De lex mitior principle	379
7.5.	The proportionality principle	381
8.	Conclusion	386
	General Summary and Conclusions	391
	CAS Decisions on Doping	403
	Bibliography	409
	Legislation and Regulations	429
	Table of Cases	441
	Subject Index	445