
SUMMARY OF CONTENTS

Foreword	V
Dr. Ernst M.H. Hirsch Ballin
Acknowledgements	VII
Table of Contents	XI
Glossary of Arabic words and system of transliteration	XVII
List of Abbreviations	XIX
 Introduction	 1
The Editors
 Part One
Jihad, its meaning, scope and purpose in the Islamic tradition
Evolving Approaches to Jihad: From Self-Defense to Revolutionary and Regime-Change Political Violence	11
M. Cherif Bassiouni
Jihad and the Interpretation of the Quran: Contextualising Islamic Tradition	39
Mohammad Hashim Kamali
Understanding the Discourses on Jihad in Islam Through Classical and Modern Narratives	59
Amna Guellali
The Pitfalls of Jihad as an Individual Duty (Fard ‘Ayn)	87
Nelly Lahoud
Resurrecting Siyar Through Fatwas ? (Re)Constructing Islamic International Law in a Post (Iraq) Invasion World	107
Shaheen Sardar Ali

Part Two
Jihad, jus ad bellum and jus in bello
The Challenge of Fragmentation of International Humanitarian Law Regarding the Protection of Civilians: An Islamic Perspective Anicée Van Engeland-Nourai	139
Jus in Bello : Civilians' Fundamental Rights Under Islamic and Public International Law Hilmi M. Zawati	167
Does the Impact of Jihad Ideology and Action Require a Transformation in the Legal Rules on Targeting? William J. Fenrick	191
Self-Defence Arguments in the Jihad Concept and their Counterparts in Western International Law Kinga Tibori Szabó	209
Part Three
Jihad and domestic law
Jihad and Counter-Jihad: Western European Legal Responses to Islamic Militancy Maurits Berger	229
Why Continue Counterterrorism Policies If They Are Hurting? Bob de Graaff	249
Index	275