SUMMARY OF CONTENTS

Foreword  V
Dr. Ernst M.H. Hirsch Ballin

Acknowledgements  VII

Table of Contents  XI

Glossary of Arabic words and system of transliteration  XVII

List of Abbreviations  XIX

Introduction  1
The Editors

Part One

Jihad, its meaning, scope and purpose in the Islamic tradition

Evolving Approaches to Jihad: From Self-Defense to Revolutionary and Regime-Change Political Violence 11
M. Cherif Bassiouni

Jihad and the Interpretation of the Quran: Contextualising Islamic Tradition 39
Mohammad Hashim Kamali

Understanding the Discourses on Jihad in Islam Through Classical and Modern Narratives 59
Amna Guellali

The Pitfalls of Jihad as an Individual Duty (Fard ‘Ayn) 87
Nelly Lahoud

Resurrecting Siyar Through Fatwas? (Re)Constructing Islamic International Law in a Post (Iraq) Invasion World 107
Shaheen Sardar Ali
Part Two
Jihad, jus ad bellum and jus in bello

- The Challenge of Fragmentation of International Humanitarian Law Regarding the Protection of Civilians: An Islamic Perspective
  - Anicée Van Engeland-Nourai
  - Page 139

- Jus in Bello: Civilians’ Fundamental Rights Under Islamic and Public International Law
  - Hilmi M. Zawati
  - Page 167

- Does the Impact of Jihad Ideology and Action Require a Transformation in the Legal Rules on Targeting?
  - William J. Fenrick
  - Page 191

- Self-Defence Arguments in the Jihad Concept and their Counterparts in Western International Law
  - Kinga Tibori Szabó
  - Page 209

Part Three
Jihad and domestic law

- Jihad and Counter-Jihad: Western European Legal Responses to Islamic Militancy
  - Maurits Berger
  - Page 229

- Why Continue Counterterrorism Policies If They Are Hurting?
  - Bob de Graaff
  - Page 249

Index

- Page 275