

Prof. Dr. Marc Maresceau

Marc Maresceau is Professor of EU law and institutions, Ghent University and holds an ad personam Jean Monnet Chair. He also teaches at University of Brussels (VUB) and College of Europe, Natolin. He is Director of the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence, Ghent University. He has held Visiting Chairs at many universities not just in Europe but also in, for example, China and Israel. He has been a legal consultant for various Governments negotiating agreements with the EU and was frequently ad hoc external expert for the European Commission. He was legal advisor to the Hungarian Government in Hungary's pre-accession phase (1992-1996). He was President of the European Community Study Association (ECSA) World (1999-2002).

He has founded in 2008 an academic series Studies in EU External Relations with Brill-Martinus Nijhoff, Leiden.

Recent or in print publications include studies on EU-Switzerland, EU-Turkey, EU-Liechtenstein, "mixed agreements", the Brita judgment of the European Court of Justice, EU-Andorra, the history of the Jean Monnet Programme.